

GOD IS USING YEC TO STRENGTHEN AND SEND STUDENTS IN WEST VIRGINIA TO BE ON MISSION BOTH LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY.

I hope you're as pumped as I am about the 2018 edition of YEC! We're back in the Capitol City with special guests Danny Akin from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Sony recording artist Bonray, and comedian Bob Smiley.

Are y'all ready to do this?

Invite your students to get away from the distractions of school and extracurricular activities so they can focus their hearts on Christ through fellowship, worship and gospel-centered teaching with hundreds of other teens from across West Virginia.

We've provided group studies to reinforce the "Backbone" theme, a new addition for 2018. You'll find two enclosed studies to lead your students through prior to YEC. We'll provide three more when you arrive - one during YEC and two for the weeks that follow.

Finally, make sure you're in the Facebook group for YEC leaders. You can join here: facebook.com/groups/WVYEC

In 14 years of seeing many lives transformed for eternity through YEC, the key ingredients in producing this event with excellence are prayer and support from youth workers. I'm grateful to serve in the trenches alongside of each of you. Please continue to pray and pour into students as we raise a generation transformed by Christ.
